

YOUR TREASURE AND YOUR Heart

AUG 2018

A lot of people don't like to hear preachers talk about money, especially from someone whose last name is Dollar. If they had been around during Jesus' time, they would have likely had a problem with His teachings as well. If you study the four Gospels, you will notice that approximately twenty of His messages dealt with money and stewardship over money, land, and possessions. As you can see, Jesus often preached about money.

Jesus says in Matthew 6:21 that "... where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." You can locate where your heart is simply by looking at your checkbook register. Where you spend your money is a clear indication of where your priorities lie.

Jesus wants us to understand that while we can't serve both God and money (Matthew 6:24), we can serve God with our money. In doing so, we are able to appropriate the financial blessings He desires us to have.

All too often, people get caught up in the pursuit of things, but Jesus warns us not to do that. Notice His words in Matthew 6:31, "Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?" In other words, He was saying, "Don't get caught up in the cares of this life." If you do, you are seeking the wrong things. Instead of seeking God, you are seeking the product (that which you can obtain from Him).

When you spend all of your time pursuing the product of the blessing, you will not be involved in the process that produces it. Matthew 6:32 says, "(For after all these do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things." God knows you need and desire material things to live in this world, and He wants you to have them.

The key, however, is to seek God first, and then these things will be added to you (Matthew 6:33). Focus on how the kingdom of God operates, make it your standard and the things you need and desire will come to you automatically. Jesus did not preach in terms of receiving a reward for being good, instead He talked about the "fruit" or the results of acting on the Word of God.

You may be wondering how the kingdom of God works. It's simple: seedtime and harvest, or sowing and reaping. According to Genesis 8:22, as long as the earth exists, so will seedtime and harvest. This system of sowing and reaping has been in operation since the beginning of time. It is a spiritual law that will work in any area of your life and governs the laws of financial prosperity.

We want to strengthen our connection with you by encouraging you to join us each week for Bible study
