APRIL 2020

I pray that this letter finds you prospering in the Anointed One. We are living in a very critical hour. The times in which we live are unlike those that any other generation has experienced. I believe that we are the generation that will usher in the return of the Lord.

There is one very important thing that I want to touch on in this letter—something that I think is more important than anything else in life, and it is this: understanding the art of prayer. Now more than ever, it is vital that you know how to pray effectively. The late Kenneth E. Hagin said that you should learn to pray in order to have success in the business world. This is just one example of how prayer can influence your life. As Christians, it is critical that we develop our personal relationships with God by demonstrating His character and likeness. When we spend time with Him, we become more like Him by walking in His love and exemplifying His nature.

If you don't know how to pray, your relationship with God is limited. Every day you should say to yourself, "He is my Father, and I am His child. I have every right to have a personal relationship with, and an intimate touch from, Him." To be saved and filled with the Holy Spirit without knowledge of this critical aspect leaves you "handicapped" in life, and you are no better off than the person who doesn't know Jesus.

God is your Father. He longs and loves to meet your needs. He doesn't want you to be concerned about your needs or bear your own burdens—He wants to assume this responsibility. In fact, the entire Bible leads us to one conclusion: the Father loves to answer prayer. God makes this very clear in Jeremiah 33:3: "Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things..." The Amplified Classic Bible goes on to describe things as "...fenced in and hidden, which you do not know (do not distinguish and recognize, have knowledge of and understand)." There are great and mighty things that God wants to show you. He is just waiting for you to get into His presence through intimate communication with Him.

It is going to take the supernatural ability of God for you to live successfully in this world. There is no need for any believer to remain ignorant. Things that were once a mystery will be revealed to those who allow prayer to govern their lives. Don't walk around "in the dark." That's where Satan dwells. As a child of God, you've been called to live in and walk in His light. Isaiah 65:24 says, "...before they call, I will answer..." God desires to speak to you so much that He says He will act on your behalf before you call. In other words, He is one step ahead of you. He knows your needs before you mention them, and He answers even before you call.

It is easier for the heavens to cease functioning than it is for God to ignore His promises.

Prayer is for your benefit. It is a conversation between a Father and His child. It doesn't have to be something that is formal or religious. You simply relate to your heavenly Father in the same way that a small child relates to his or her natural father. A child of God says, "Hey, that's my Dad (on the throne), and He has love gifts for me." Some people believe that you aren't praying if you aren't asking or pleading for something. There is so much more to prayer besides making requests. Doing so is a part of prayer, but it should not be the sum total of your prayer life.

Prayer is a dialogue, not a monologue. You shouldn't do all of the talking. Prayer is when you and God talk and listen to what each other has to say. It is "hanging out" together, discussing things that are dear to Him and discussing things that disappoint Him. Prayer enables you to see through His eyes, feel through His hands, love what He loves, and hate what He hates. It is both worship and fellowship. This is where the real victory begins. You can't spend time in prayer and not be affected. You will experience great peace when you spend significant time in prayer.

I can't think of any greater or more important endeavor than getting to know God. Prayer is not just a part of my life, it is my life—24 hours a day, seven days a week. It enables me to stay connected to the source of all life. Psalm 69:32, AMPC, says, "...you who seek God, inquiring for and requiring Him [as your first need]..." and Psalm 34:4, AMPC, says, "I sought (inquired of) the Lord and required Him [of necessity and on the authority of His Word]..." Make sure your life is balanced and that you have your priorities in order. The quality of your life depends on the degree of your intimacy with God, and prayer is the bridge to that intimacy. Keep in mind that the best way to show love, honor, and respect to others is by lifting them up in prayer. Tune in to this month's broadcast for ways in which you can pray for your family and ministry leaders.

May God empower you to win in every arena in life. Taffi and I love you. Thank you for your support and prayers. I am honored to be a co-laborer with you.

In Him,

OUR VISION

As we proclaim Jesus, the Christ, as the Head of the Church and the manifested Word of God, our goal is to teach the Word of God with simplicity and understanding so that it may be applied to our everyday lives in a practical and effective manner; thereby being transformed into World Changers—changing our immediate world and all those with whom we come in contact—ultimately making a mark that cannot be erased.
