JULY 2020

When the subject of prosperity is brought up, money is usually the first thing that comes to mind. We've been conditioned by the world to believe that a person with a lot of money is prosperous—and if that individual is prosperous, then he or she must be happy.

There's no doubt about it: having the funds to go wherever you want and to be able to do and buy whatever you please is a good thing—but it's not everything. To think about money when you hear the word prosperity is not incorrect, just incomplete. You see, a person can have a million dollars in his bank account and still suffer from the ravaging effects of cancer. Or an individual may live in a mansion, and yet be without meaningful relationships.

Having plenty of money is the world's limited idea of prosperity, not God's. What good is it for you to have enough money to purchase the best medical care and still not be able to lay hold of the divine health promised to you by God? Jesus came to give you total life prosperity—abundance in your home, body, workplace, and relationships, not just in your wallet. And while people desire to be financially wealthy, they sometimes reject the message of prosperity, because they associate it with greed and view it as a message intended solely for the preacher's benefit.

Perhaps you have been told that money is the root of all evil. That's not what the Word of God says. If you look at First Timothy 6:10, you'll see that it reads, "For the love of money is the root of all evil." It's not money, but a wrong relationship with it, that causes problems. The prosperity message, if taught from a truly biblical perspective, speaks of much more than acquiring money. You see, God is concerned with every aspect of your life. Although it includes money, it means much more than your finances.

It's time for us, as Christians, to renew our minds to the knowledge of the good and perfect will of God for our lives. We should hear the conclusion of the whole matter rather than limit God and what He can do in our lives. Biblical prosperity means that you have the ability to be in control in every circumstance in your life. No matter what happens, whether it's financial, social, physical, mental, spiritual, or emotional, this type of prosperity enables you to maintain that control every time. I'll even go a step further and define biblical prosperity as "having God's ability to meet not only your needs, but also the needs of mankind—regardless of what those needs may be."

You can prosper financially, but you can also prosper in your spirit, soul, body, marriage, and life in general. How? Through the Word of God. Take David, for example. David was a man after God's own heart; as such, he reflected God's intent for us in His Word. Look at David's petition to the Lord concerning his ability to prosper. He said, "Direct my steps by Your word, And let no iniquity have dominion over me" (Psalm 119:133, NKJV). Few people realize it, but David was praying for biblical prosperity. He was asking the Lord to direct his steps according to the Word of God. His supplication was that no evil, sin, or wickedness be allowed to have authority over him.

Although the iniquity facing David in his day may be different from what you're going through now, the end result is the same: lack of control. Anything in your life that controls you instead of your controlling it should be considered iniquity. The Word of God calls for you to be the head and not the tail, and more than a conqueror (Deuteronomy 28:13; Romans 8:37). If you are uncertain how to live a prosperous life, let the Word of God show you the way.

Taffi and I love you and pray for you every day. May the blessing of God be on you and your family. Remember, Jesus is Lord, and "...in all of your getting, get understanding."

Love,

OUR VISION

As we proclaim Jesus, the Christ, as the Head of the Church and the manifested Word of God, our goal is to teach the Word of God with simplicity and understanding so that it may be applied to our everyday lives in a practical and effective manner; thereby being transformed into World Changers—changing our immediate world and all those with whom we come in contact—ultimately making a mark that cannot be erased.
