

Praise

a high form of faith

How much time do you spend praising God? The amount of time you spend praising God is the greatest single indicator of where you are in your relationship with the Lord. We need to praise God the most in times of conflict, hard confrontation, frustration, and stress. However, praise shouldn't be the caboose that follows the circumstances of your life, it should be the engine that drives your life. When we praise God, we must know that it does three things: 1) it causes our faith to be amplified; 2) it runs the devil off; and 3) it ministers to God.

"And now, just as you accepted Christ Jesus as your Lord, you must continue to follow him. Let your roots grow down into him, and let your lives be built on him. Then your faith will grow strong in the truth you were taught, and you will overflow with thankfulness" (Colossians 2:6, 7). I believe that when you begin to operate in thanksgiving and praise, it causes your faith to increase and overflow. I believe that praise is a high form of faith. Abound in faith as you wait for the manifestation of His power to bring you through different trials.

Psalm 34:1 declares, "I will bless the Lord at all times; His praise shall continually be in my mouth." We have to make a decision to bless the Lord whether we feel good or not. We don't do it because we've "discovered a new (mechanical) step that could help prosper" us. We do it to experience a genuine, intimate relationship with Him. Praise that is born out of authenticity is effective.

Whatever you think about and focus your attention on determines the course of your life. I believe that and have testimony after testimony of what can become better simply by changing my focus. The Bible says attend to His Word, so what's your focus? What are you constantly thinking about? What are you focusing your attention on? The answer is going to determine the course of your life.

Your thoughts are like roots that determine the fruit in your life. The roots determine why you do what you do, say what you say, feel like you feel, and act like you act. Therefore, you have to allow your thinking to be on the promises of God, so that the course of your life can be set. We must praise God before the physical manifestation of what we are believing Him for, so that our faith is complete.

"Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger" (Psalm 8:2). Praise is also a weapon against the enemy. Pride made Satan want to be like God; he wants praise. The spirit of mammon wants what God gets from you. It wants worshippers, even a church if the devil can get it. He wants your trust; he wants you to need him. That's why the love of money is the root of all evil. The love of money is to trust money more than you trust God. When you do, you won't continuously praise God. Satan can't stand to hear God praised. It makes him mad, but it also makes him flee.

I pray that, as you are reading this, the presence of God would just sit down with you as you praise Him. Praise God from whom all blessings flow! Praise will break those chains that have held you back and break any bondage that's in your life. God gave everything to us, so the least we can do is be thankful. We should be grateful and, through our praise, minister to God and bless Him for all that He's done. I believe that whatever is missing, broken, or hurting in your life will be restored through praising God. It's His pleasure to do so, according to Revelation 4:11, "[F]or thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created."

OPERATE IN THANKSGIVING AND PRAISE

Taffi and I love you and pray for you every day. May the blessing of God be on you and your family. Remember, Jesus is Lord, and "...in all of your getting, get understanding."

Love,

Creflo Dollar

OUR VISION

As we proclaim Jesus, the Christ, as the Head of the Church and the manifested Word of God, our goal is to teach the Word of God with simplicity and understanding so that it may be applied to our everyday lives in a practical and effective manner; thereby being transformed into World Changers—changing our immediate world and all those with whom we come in contact—ultimately making a mark that cannot be erased.
