

Trust

IS THE CURRENCY.

How much do you trust God? There are many ways of expressing our trust in Him, but our giving is the main source. As Christians, when we give it's not about the money, it's about expressing the trust that we have in God. Trust is the currency of exchange in His kingdom. Money can't buy the favor of God; it can't buy healing; it can't buy deliverance; it can't buy the answered prayer you want. However, money is an expression of the trust you have in God, and that trust is what causes those things to begin to show up in your life.

When you give to Him and it's not a chore, when you really want to do it, you see blessings. That blessing becomes an empowerment to assist you in being successful in any area of your life. There's an enormous advantage in the life of a Christian giver. Things are different for you than for other people because God is obligated to make sure you're empowered to have success—even over someone more "qualified" than you. He empowers you because you have expressed trust in Him.

Proverbs 10:22 says, "The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it." I'm not suggesting that the blessing is always going to make you richer in your finances, but you will have an abundance of whatever you may need at the time as a result of God's blessing on your life. This may be an abundance of wisdom, an abundance of favor, an abundance of money, or even an abundance of skill. In other words, abundance is the hallmark of a Christian giver operating under the blessing of the Lord.

Deuteronomy 16:17 tells us that "Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee." God is not expecting you to give any more than what you're able to give. You aren't the source of your prosperity, and what you have, you didn't get on your own. Make no mistake about it, He has given to us that we may give.

God loves a cheerful giver, but does this mean that God won't love you if you're not one? Absolutely not! God loved you even before you became born-again. However, He does take pleasure when you give because you are ultimately assisting Him in His overall plan for man. You're helping Him to oversee the details of the kingdom, to brighten up people's lives, to change situations, and to finance His church so that it can continue impacting lives and doing all that it does.

When you are a Christian giver, you'll notice blessings that you might not be able to explain at times. Proverbs 3:9 tells us to "Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase: So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine." First we must understand what honor means. It's a word that means to "carry weight" or to "place as first priority." When we honor God with our wealth, we give our finances to Him, first, because He carries more weight in our lives than anybody else.

Being filled and having plenty are the result of expressing trust and honoring God. You see, at the end of the day, this still doesn't have anything to do with money. It all has to do with your willingness to trust God. I believe that God is about to bring extravagant favors, opportunities, and open doors in your life because you choose to trust and honor Him, first!

ABUNDANCE IS THE HALLMARK OF A CHRISTIAN GIVER

Taffi and I love you and pray for you every day. May the blessing of God be on you and your family. Remember, Jesus is Lord, and "...in all of your getting, get understanding."

Love,

Creflo Dollar
