

HOW MUCH CAN YOU HANDLE IN GOD'S KINGDOM

SEP 2017

We've been discussing the topic of giving these last few months so I want to share something that I see as a vital revelation for this time. It's a life principle that Jesus illustrated in Luke 16 in a parable about a steward who was unfaithful with his master's money: "He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much" (Luke 16:10).

Jesus chose the word, least, to refer to money because money is the "least area" where you use your faith in the whole kingdom of God! Religious people try to make it the biggest thing, but it's actually the smallest thing—it's the least. It's not bigger than you getting healed; it's not bigger than relationships; it's not bigger than anything else, yet we've been taught to make it a major item and allow it to mess with our emotions and rob us of our peace. Money is the least area where you can use your faith, but if you can be faithful with money—if you can be continuously committed to being trustworthy with it—you will be able to handle everything else in the kingdom.

People used to say it was heresy for me to even say that your Christianity was attached to how faithful you could be with money. They could not see it. I could barely see it myself, but I've got it now and I can dissect this thing so that you can get it, too! It's like if you start lifting weights tomorrow, but you haven't been to the gym in fifteen years. You probably don't need to start off with any weight on the bar; in fact, you might need to start off with a broomstick. How well you do with that broomstick is going to qualify you for the bar, and for constantly having more weight added to that bar. Well, money is the broomstick; it's the least that you need to start with to move to the bigger things in the kingdom of God.

Take a look at verses 11 and 12: "If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's who shall give you that which is your own?" In other words, if you can't be trusted with riches, money, or wealth—things that are the least in the kingdom of God—who's going to trust you with anything that has true value?

Now I want you to catch this. Not only is Jesus saying that if you can't be trusted with the least you can't be trusted with the true; but He's also saying that if you can't be faithful—trustworthy—with something that belongs to someone else, you've shown that you aren't prepared for anything of your own. Faithfulness in one area is going to produce faithfulness in another area. Jesus is trying to show you how your trust works. Trust in one area is going to produce trust in another area.

Your trustworthiness with money depends on whether or not you trust Him. If your trust can't handle money then your trust definitely won't be able to handle all the things that God promised you. The health of your trust will determine how much you can carry, how much you can handle. If you can handle giving and receiving, you can handle much in God's kingdom.

Love,
