IN EVERY AREA OF YOUR LIFE

2020
VISION

MAY 2018

I pray that this letter finds you experiencing overflow in every area of your life. This is definitely the season for supernatural increase. If you haven't experienced it yet, or if it has been a sporadic occurrence, I have great news for you. I've identified one of the enemy's tactics and I want to share some insight that will help you break his hold on your life forever.

The devil is clearly waging a battle of containment against the saints of God. He is not nearly as concerned with driving you backward as he is with containing you; he wants to restrain you and stifle your progress. His goal is to keep you from getting to the place where God wants you to go. Let's be clear about where God wants you to go: He wants you to go into the overflow (John 10:10, AMPC). God wants you to live an abundant life with more than enough resources for yourself and the people He has called you to impact.

In your spiritual growth, whenever you start to move decisively forward, the enemy strives harder to contain you. For instance, in your prayer life, if you desire greater fellowship with God, the enemy doesn't mind if you continue to pray at your current level, but as soon as you try to break into a new dimension of prayer, you encounter distractions! Whether it's unexpected visitors at home, a change in your work schedule, phone calls, or other hindrances to your prayer time, all distractions are a part of the enemy's plan of containment. It is time for you to defeat the devil and make significant spiritual progress! I want you to go beyond achieving only bits and pieces. It is time for you to gather great quantities of spiritual power. When you receive God's full empowerment, it will bring about a total breakthrough in your life and move you permanently beyond containment.

The enemy's goal is to stop the end-time harvest of souls. He is determined to prevent Christians from growing financially. During this end-time season, you must use the same energy that caused previous breakthrough, and the same level of effort that swept you to past victories, to help you achieve a financial breakthrough. Whenever Christians decide to help reap the end-time harvest, the enemy declares a war of containment against their financial growth!

If you doubt that your finances are being contained, let me quickly prove it to you. Right now, you can probably think of several people who are neither as smart nor as qualified as you, yet they make more money than you do. You see, the enemy doesn't care how much money non-Christians earn because their money will not be used to spread the Gospel of Grace to those who lack understanding about Jesus Christ.

Most secular entertainers will never finance the gospel. Producers who make explicit movies will not give one dime for the next major crusade. That's why the enemy has no interest in containing them! He wants to stop you and me from financing the end-time harvest. It's up to us, as born-again Christians, to finance it together. That's why the seed that you sow into this ministry is so vital. Because of you, the Word of God is being spread around the world through television and radio programs, books, audio, video, and digital products, the Internet, and special conferences and conventions. You are helping to change lives with the Gospel of Grace. There is still much left to do, and if you never get the financial breakthrough that God wants you to have, His church may never realize the vision that He has for it.

If you're ready to break through the walls of containment around your finances, choose right now to do whatever it takes to prosper. Gather biblical principles relating to finances. Break through the devil's wall of containment with violence and force (Matthew 11:12). Study the Scriptures for mention of the endtime harvest and apply the principles day in and day out. Break the walls of containment and achieve total breakthrough! The enemy has contained your finances long enough. The walls must come down as they did in Jericho! Taffi and I love you and pray that the love of God will increase in your life. Starting today, as you continue to sow into the gospel, we believe that you will break through the enemy's walls of containment and move into the overflow! Remember that Jesus is Lord, and "in all thy getting, get understanding" (Proverbs 4:7).

Love,

Creffo Dollar
