Summary:

For the believer, life can seem like a string of constant battles that weigh us down spiritually. When we begin feeling like that, God provides us the opportunity to start over and begin again. He gives us the supernatural ability to win, regardless of what's happening in the natural. He wants us to triumph; therefore, our victories are guaranteed. This is illustrated with David's victory in the fight against Goliath; like David, we are victorious when we trust in God and refuse to be afraid of others' opinions. The pain and the temptation to cave in is real; however, our victory in Christ is even more real.

Notes:

1. It's not God's will that we fear anyone; we must be like David, who trusted God.
2. Living godly will result in persecution; this is guaranteed. However, we can trust that God will bring us through it.
3. We mustn't be concerned about others' opinions, especially when they contradict God's Word.
4. We must maintain our faith when the battle heats up; God is on our side. It's essential to keep reminding ourselves of the victory we have through Christ.
5. In the middle of the fight, God wants us to remember who we are—winners. God won't allow temptation to exceed our ability to resist it; He designs all tests in life for us to pass.
