Summary:

The Holy Spirit is our silent partner and the third person in the Holy Trinity, sent to lead us where we need to go in life, and He has multiple roles. As a teacher, He alerts us to false teachings that deceive so many in these last days. Other roles He fills include a corrector, a director, a planner, and a deliverer. Allowing Him to guide us through every situation moves us into an overwhelmingly good plan that God lovingly prepared specifically for us.

Notes:

1. The Holy Ghost knows all truths; allowing Him to lead us brings us into the truth. He knows just how to tug on our hearts and guide us to where we need to go.
2. As a teacher, the Holy Spirit imparts knowledge and information. Spiritually immature people don't understand how they can learn from someone they can't see or touch, which is why it's so important to get in the Word.
3. The Spirit corrects us when we need improvement and refinement; He also rebukes us when necessary, but He does so in love. Most of the corrections He makes focus on how we treat others. His intent is to keep us in love and out of self-centeredness.
4. As a director, His job is to provide the directions we need so that we can arrive at the destination God intended for us; the Spirit knows how to get us to our destiny.
5. God's plans for us are good. If we start to wander away from the script He has for our lives, the Holy Spirit redirects us and gets us back on track.
6. As our deliverer, we must rely on the Spirit to deliver us instead of on ourselves, our friends, or our own resources. He's with us, not just in church, but even when trouble shows up.
