Summary:

Most churches stay busy giving people rules and regulations to follow, but when we get saved, it's important to fall in love with Jesus. Many of the issues with which we struggle are the same ones He has already dealt with. We struggle because we focus too much on all the religious "do's" and "don'ts" instead of focusing on Jesus. When we want to change for the better but can't do so by ourselves, the Spirit of grace changes us from the inside out.

Notes:

1. Grace is Jesus Christ, Himself; living under grace enriches our lives.
2. The devil doesn't need to get us to sin if he can instead get us to try to keep the law. The law is designed to increase sin; therefore, trying to keep the law will eventually cause us to sin.
3. The sacrifice of Jesus' body and blood for sin must never be cheapened. We can't live the life of grace without the spirit of grace.
4. All sin is the same, regardless of whether we think it's big or small.
5. We can't discern things of the spirit if we're still living under the law—if we're led by the law, we are not under the Spirit. The law was all about demands; grace is all about supply. Grace delivers us from the bondage of the law, including shame.
