Summary:

The world is a place filled with stress, confusion, and chaos; as Christians, the only way we can succeed in this kind of environment is by living in the peace that comes only through Jesus. In a fearful, insecure world, we find what we need for real success through a relationship with Jesus, the Prince of Peace. He is our Shalom. Partaking of Him, who is the bread of life, gives us what the world will never have—peace.

Notes:

1. Peace is security in the midst of turmoil.
2. The world has no peace because it does not know Jesus; knowing Him gives us peace. We receive this peace by faith.
3. Jesus is our peace; when we're in Christ and He's in us, we have supernatural peace. We can't cannot find peace in material possessions, money, or other people—only through Jesus.
4. Trusting in God protects us from the stress and fear that afflict the rest of the world.
5. Meditating in the Word and maintaining a relationship with Jesus benefits us greatly. Fear cripples us. We can't live successfully on any level if we're living in fear, but the peace Jesus gives sets us up for success in life.
