Summary:

Although the world may be completely uninformed about things of the spirit, angelic presence in the lives of believers is real. When we get born again, God assigns guardian angels to minister to each one of us; they surround and protect us from every side. Their existence is documented in numerous places throughout the Bible. Angels guard us against evil and are deeply interested in our daily lives; we're well cared-for under the supervision of these supernatural beings.

Notes:

1. Believers have supernatural protection and guidance that comes directly from heaven. Angels are given the job of serving believers; they're always in God's presence, ready to do His bidding.
2. There are some facts we must know about angels. God, Himself, created them; they were created to live for all eternity and don't die; they not only were present when God created the world, but actually helped in the process of creation; and they don't marry.
3. Angels can give us godly insight, are interested in us, and exist in the supernatural realm. They're wise and intelligent, take an interest in human affairs, are able to take us where we need to go after we die, and are spiritual, not physical, beings.
4. We mustn't worship our heavenly guardians. They serve God but watch over us. Angels have their own free will, and express emotions.
