

faith IS YOUR PRESCRIPTION for life

JUNE 2022

Dear Partners,

Most people have their own ideas and opinions about how they want to live their lives. God made us all free moral agents and we have the right to make our own decisions. However, just because we have the right to do something doesn't mean it's the right thing to do. We've all seen people who live according to what they think and what's going on around them, with questionable results.

We can either live by our five senses or by faith. The kind of faith we need isn't faith in others or even in our own abilities, but faith in God. The world doesn't understand a life of faith because it involves being born again and accepting Jesus Christ, which makes us righteous in God's eyes. Living by faith is so important to God that He emphasizes it repeatedly, in Habakkuk 2:4, Romans 1:17, Galatians 3:11, and Hebrews 10:38.

As Christians, we have to decide whether to pay attention to this prescription for life or ignore it and live any which way we want. To be able to apply this to our own lives, we have to rightly divide God's Word on it and break down what's required to live by faith. What we expose ourselves to influences how we think; learning how to think and developing our faith comes by studying His Word. "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God"

(Romans 10:17). Faith actually equals the Word because it's impossible to hear God's living Word over and over again, study and meditate on it, and stay the same.

This is a critical lesson we must learn if we're to live in a fearful world. If there's no Word, there's no faith; if there's no faith, then the door is open for fear to come in. Fear comes from hearing the words of the devil, who rules this world. This is a dangerous place to be, because if we go to a church that just yells, screams, and dances but the pastor doesn't teach the Word, we'll never learn what we need to know about faith.

The definition of how to build our faith can be connected to what Paul wrote in Hebrews 11:1, that faith is the substance of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen. Substituting the Word of God for faith tells us that the Word of God is the substance of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen. The Word is our confirmation that we're guaranteed to receive what God promised, even if we don't have what we're hoping for just yet.

This is like having a confirmation number for a hotel room that we've reserved. Even if the hotel is completely booked up, we know our room is waiting for us somewhere in there, even if we can't see it. God's Word is our confirmation number for whatever we need, whether it's healing, prosperity, promotion, deliverance, or anything else. This gives us hope and an earnest expectation of a promise made to us, in the knowledge that although we can't see it yet, it definitely exists.

Faith is crucial in the life of a Christian, but most people confuse it with belief, which is not the same thing. Most religious folks will say, "Believe." There's nothing wrong with that, but we have to take it one step further. We can believe all we want, but it won't amount to anything unless we act in faith on what we believe. Our actions and everything we do are just empty works unless our faith is the driving force that motivates us to take that action.

Speaking and articulating our faith puts belief into action. When we believe what's written in the Word strongly enough, we'll open our mouths and confess it; we can apply this to any situation in which we find ourselves. This is how we lose our faith, just like pulling the trigger of a gun.

"We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak" (2 Corinthians 4:13). Living a life of faith reminds us of our victory, and reminds the devil that he's already lost the battle. When we rely on the spiritual vision that our faith brings us, it allows God to manifest what's already available to us.

Taffi and I love you and pray for you every day. May the blessing of God be on you and your family. Remember, Jesus is Lord, and "...in all of your getting, get understanding."

In Expectation,

Hope in DISASTER

God calls us to go into crisis areas to help those who are most vulnerable," said Franklin Graham, president of Samaritan's Purse.

HERE'S HOW WE ARE SUPPORTING THOSE ON THE FRONTLINES

Meeting Urgent Needs, Working Alongside Church Partners

The world is shocked and horrified by the images of death and destruction coming out of Ukraine, a catastrophe we have not witnessed in Europe since the Second World War.

"Ukrainian families are hurting and in desperate need of prayer and support as millions flee for their lives," said Franklin Graham. "We want to meet the needs of these families in their darkest moments while pointing them to the light and hope of Jesus Christ." In addition to our medical work, Samaritan's Purse is providing hundreds of tons of food, as well as water, hygiene kits, blankets, winter clothing, and other important items to refugee families. We are working alongside local churches to get this urgent relief to those in greatest need.

OVER THE PAST TWO YEARS, CREFLO DOLLAR MINISTRIES SOUTH AFRICA HAS ADJUSTED TO THE TIMES AS TEAM MEMBERS WORKED FROM HOME DUE TO THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC.

The Office accelerated its mission in this time of need. It became a quick on-the-ground resource for prayer, aid, and support in local communities. The Office started a time of prayer at one police station that grew across the region. That station referred the team to another police station for prayer and they referred them to another station and so on until the six-member team prayed twice per week for:

34 hospitals

24 police stations

several health clinics and shelters

Prisons began requesting DVD materials, and the ministry happily provided them to minister to souls hungry for Jesus. To read more information on how Creflo Dollar Ministries South Africa is impacting communities please click the link below..
