

ALIGNED WITH God's Word

JANUARY 2023

Setting our day early each morning is an important component of staying organized and successful, the way God wants us to be. Understanding His Word and putting it into our hearts helps us to plan each day the way we should—with Godly wisdom. Confessing His Word is a powerful way to put this understanding to work for us in a practical way.

One guarantee in life is that we'll always encounter persecution from Satan. However, we don't have to put up with attacks from an enemy who has already been defeated. Speaking the particular Scripture out loud that pertains to our situation guards us against the devil and keeps us under the umbrella of God's protection.

Those who live in the shelter of the Most High will find rest in the shadow of the Almighty. This I declare about the Lord: He alone is my refuge, my place of safety; he is my God, and I trust him. For he will rescue you from every trap and protect you from deadly disease. He will cover you with his feathers. He will shelter you with his wings. His faithful promises are your armor and protection. Do not be afraid of the terrors of the night, nor the arrow that flies in the day. Do not dread the disease that stalks in darkness, nor the disaster that strikes at midday. Though a thousand fall at your side, though ten thousand are dying around you, these evils will not touch you (Psalm 91:1-7, NLT).

Every word of this passage is true; loading this in our mouths and confessing it gives us access to all of heaven's power when we need it.

Being in God's presence is the safest place in the universe to be. He's a personal God, and He goes on to invite us into His presence, and His protection.

If you make the Lord your refuge, if you make the Most High your shelter, no evil will conquer you; no plague will come near your home. For he will order his angels to protect you wherever you go. They will hold you up with their hands so you won't even hurt your foot on a stone.

You will trample upon lions and cobras; you will crush fierce lions and serpents under your feet! The Lord says, "I will rescue those who love me. I will protect those who trust in my name. When they call on me, I will answer; I will be with them in trouble. I will rescue and honor them" (Psalm 91:9-15, NLT).

Confessions like this give us plenty of ammunition against the devil.

Confessing God's Word is like pulling a trigger and releasing a bullet; it's how we release our faith and cause supernatural things to happen. As believers, we're the righteousness of God because of our trust in Him. Romans 10:6 says the righteousness which is of faith speaks on this.

GOD AND HIS WORD ARE THE SAME

We must never underestimate the power of our confessions.

There's no reason to settle for what the world settles for. As the righteousness of God, speaking His Word heals us and delivers us from trouble.

"He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions" (Psalm 107:20). Understanding the authority our words wield gives us a huge advantage.

John 1:1 says that in the beginning the Word was with God and the Word was God. God inhabits His Word; God and His Word are the same. When we study the Bible and speak what it says, we're utilizing unequalled power.

God created everything through the power of His spoken Word. In this respect, the phrases "and God said...and God called" become very significant (Genesis 1:3, 5, 6, 8-11, 14, 15, 20, 22, 24, 26). Accomplishing anything or experiencing any level of success requires that we understand the correlation between God's Word and our words. "So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it" (Isaiah 55:11). We only see results when we align what we say with what God said.

Taffi and I love you and pray for you every day. May the blessing of God be on you and your family. Remember, Jesus is Lord, and "...in all of your getting, get understanding."

In Expectation,

Creflo Dollar

MEETING URGENT NEEDS IN AFGHANISTAN WITH EMERGENCY FOOD

Kunduz, one of the north-eastern provinces of Afghanistan, has experienced some of the harshest security situations over the past the years, with the Taliban and other warring groups maintaining strong presence and influence here. Many families have left the province in search of safer locations throughout Afghanistan.

Those that have not had the means or option to leave the province are experiencing dire humanitarian conditions, but instability in the region has made it hard for many aid organisations to provide humanitarian assistance.

Our Samaritan's Purse partner on the ground has been able to work in this difficult area because of their history in the province, and we praise God for these open doors and opportunities to provide emergency food, in Jesus' Name. 250 vulnerable families were given food supplies to last for three months, helping those in urgent need. Shelter For Life, our partner in the region, worked hard to source the food supplies locally in Afghanistan, and the families were provided with items such as wheat flour, cooking oil, beans and rice.

Many who are on the edges of society, children, the widowed and disabled, or families fleeing their homes for safety, received life-saving support through this emergency food distribution. Please pray for all those in Afghanistan who are struggling through this humanitarian crisis, and for our partners as they meet urgent physical needs. Please also continue to pray for peace in the region.

OUR VISION

As we proclaim Jesus, the Christ, as the Head of the Church and the manifested Word of God, our goal is to teach the Word of God with simplicity and understanding so that it may be applied to our everyday lives in a practical and effective manner; thereby being transformed into World Changers—changing our immediate world and all those with whom we come in contact—ultimately making a mark that cannot be erased.
