

HEALING IS HIS WILL

FEBRUARY 2023

Dear Partner,

The world we live in is far from perfect. There are plenty of viruses, sicknesses, and diseases all around us; however, there's no reason for the believer to struggle with them. Our words carry immense power, and we have the authority to confess our healing and good health. The faith of God is voice- activated, and our confessions unleash that power.

We can be "Psalm 91- equipped" when we open our mouths and speak words of healing over whatever diagnosis the doctor has pronounced. We don't have to accept it; we can instead choose to receive what God has pronounced over us concerning our healing. Verses three and six of Psalm 91 say that God will deliver us from the pestilence and that we don't have to be afraid of it. Pestilence is defined as a contagious or infectious epidemic disease that's virulent and devastating; we're safe from this when we trust in God.

Believing that Jesus died on the cross so that we could be healed is one way we respond to His finished works. It's already done; we therefore don't have to panic and beg Him to heal us when we get bad news. We can accept our healing because we know that God loves us and wants us healthy and whole. We may feel gut-punched temporarily, but we can rejoice because we know how the story ends. "...Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning" (Psalm 30:5).

No matter what the doctor says, God's Word is the final authority. It's His will that we're healed. However, His will doesn't automatically come to pass; we have to decide if we're going to receive that healing for ourselves. When the leper came to Jesus for healing and expressed some doubt as to whether that was His will, Jesus reassured the man that it was. "And it happened when He was in a certain city, that behold, a man who was full of leprosy saw Jesus; and he fell on his face and implored Him, saying, 'Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean.' Then He put out His hand and touched him, saying, 'I am willing; be cleansed.' Immediately the leprosy left him" (Luke 5:12, 13, NKJV).

This is still true today. Some of us block our own healing with doubt and questioning. God has made us free moral agents; it's up to us to make the decision as to whether to accept the good health available to us, or stay sick. It seems simple, but we see lots of people around us who are ignorant of God's Word and have made the wrong choice, and are suffering for it.

To receive our healing, we need to move away from the prevailing mindset around us that says we have to do something to get healed. The truth is that we don't have to "get" healing, because we already have it. God tells us in Isaiah 53:5 and First Peter 2:24 that by His stripes we are healed. It's already there for us to receive by faith if we want it, but God's not going to force it on us if we choose not to believe this.

We can say we believe, but the acid test of genuine faith is whether we're at rest in the midst of the situation. That means no worry, no anxiety, and no nagging fears that it may be God's will to heal others but not us. Lots of us may have done this to ourselves and sabotaged our healing; this comes from a religious mindset that does us no good. Confidence in God's Word in this area saves us from wrong- thinking.

The kind of rest we need takes real labor to maintain when we feel the enemy trying to push us into stress over our health. We must remember that we're not laboring to get healed, but to maintain our position of rest because we're already healed. A practical strategy for this is daily study and meditation on healing Scriptures followed by regular praise and worship for our good health. Doing this keeps us grounded and prevents our emotions from sweeping us away.

Taffi and I love you and pray for you every day. May the blessing of God be on you and your family. Remember, Jesus is Lord, and "...in all of your getting, get understanding."

In Expectation,

Creflo Dollar

SERVING THE SURVIVORS IN UKRAINE

SAMARITAN'S PURSE HELPED THOUSANDS AT OUR EMERGENCY FIELD HOSPITAL IN A LIBERATED AREA OF EASTERN UKRAINE.

While lying in a cot at the Samaritan's Purse Emergency Field Hospital, Yulia was eager to share her story. Still sore from her long-awaited surgery, she spoke softly—wincing as she shifted in her bed. A nurse wearing blue scrubs branded with the organisation's cross logo hovered close by, smiling and nodding as she listened along. Yulia was safe now. She could finally be heard.

"I was really scared," Yulia said. "I didn't know if I would survive. We cried and were afraid. We asked God to save us and protect us so that we could survive the attacks and bombings." As Yulia recounted her time trapped in occupied Ukraine, she fought back tears. Scenes of the violence and terror had scarred her memory—a wound no surgeon could heal.

Yulia was one of many who chose to stay in her city throughout the invasion. When asked why she refused to flee, her answer was simple: This is her home, and she had no intention of leaving it.

OUR VISION

As we proclaim Jesus, the Christ, as the Head of the Church and the manifested Word of God, our goal is to teach the Word of God with simplicity and understanding so that it may be applied to our everyday lives in a practical and effective manner; thereby being transformed into World Changers—changing our immediate world and all those with whom we come in contact—ultimately making a mark that cannot be erased.
